MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution

FROM : Associate Coordinator for Academic Relations, NFAC

SUBJECT : "Arms Transfer Problems: Need for More Research", Thursday, 14 June 1979

1. On the Director's behalf you are invited to participate in a discussion/dinner on the above subject in the DCI Conference Room (7D64) on the date and time appointed. Our purpose is to focus on the impact that greater European participation in NATO defense production will have on the alliance. The probable economic, political, and military consequences of this to both European and US defense interests will be considered. The analytic contributions the intelligence community can make will be of particular interest.

2. The following have been invited from outside and have accepted:

yes ① Professor Paul Hammond, University of Pittsburgh

② Professor Geoffrey Kemp, Tufts University

③ Professor Edward Kolodziej, University of Illinois

④ Lucy W. Benson, Under Secretary for Security Assistance,
Science and Technology, State Department

NO → Jim Montgomery, ~~Deputy Assistant Director~~ - 632 6056
Barry Blechman, Assistant Director, Weapons Evaluation and Control Bureau, U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency 632 2056

⑤ Ellen L. Frost, Deputy Assistant Secretary for International Economic Affairs, International Security Affairs,
Department of Defense

⑥ Gerald D. Sullivan, Staff Assistant, Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Research and Engineering

Some Questions That Might Be Addressed

1. How important to the future of the NATO alliance is Europe's major participation in NATO defense production?
2. How vital is a viable European defense industry to the US?
3. Are European defense industries capable of providing NATO with the modern weapons systems they need for the 1980s and 1990s?
4. How important is intra-NATO industrial cooperation to the European defense industry?
5. How important is the Third World market to the Europeans?
6. What analytic efforts should the Intelligence Community make to support policymakers in this field?
